Great American spelling hang-up

By MYRA VANDERPOOL GORMLEY
Los Angeles Times Syndicate

Family historians are usually courteous people, but some will argue at the drop of that proverbial hat about the spelling of their ancestors' names — insisting that their family always spelled it Lowry, not Lowrey or Laurie.

Some, particularly the "online genealogists," are less than diplomatic about informing others that their information posted on Web sites, in databases or on mailing lists is wrong because great-grandmother's name was spelled Katharine, not Catherine.

Where did we get this hang-up about name spelling? It is not fair to put the blame on our schoolteachers, though they probably are guilty of pounding the notion into our heads that a name is (or should be) spelled a particular way. Our parents and relatives often passed along family lore about why our surname is spelled a certain way.

"We are not related to the 'Clarkes,'" Uncle Wally may tell you, "Our name has always been spelled 'Clark.'" One popular American myth goes: Once upon a time two (insert your surname) brothers languages. According to Jayare Roberts, an accredited genealogist, historical records and individual testimonies indicate that most real name changes occurred during the naturalization process, not at Ellis Island.

It is a rare American name that does not have several spelling variants. Variants are not name changes and they are not errors. You only show your lack of experience and knowledge when you insist one particular spelling of a name is the "correct" one. For example, researchers have found that the name Whitney has been recorded more than 80 ways.

A good rule to follow is to check all forms of the first vowel in your surnames when searching any index or using search engines. And, watch out for those spelling scoundrels — the Sneaky H and Shifty R.

For a name like Whiteley you should routinely check indices for Wha, Whe, Whi, Who, Whu and Why. The "y" sounds like "i" so treat it like a vowel. Also, drop the "h" and look for Wa, We, Wi, Wo, Wu and Wy spellings. Look up your surname in a good name dictionary such as "A Dictionary of Surnames" by Patrick Hanks and Flavia Hodges (widely available in libraries) to discover Johann Jacob Redman was born 14 July 1771, Berks Co., Pa. to Conrad and Anna Catharine Sier Redman. The Redman's were of German origin and were members of the Lutheran church.

Jacob married Catharine Kemmerling, dau. of Ludwick and Christina Bonnewitz Kemmerling. They lived in Pinegrove Twp., Berks Co. where Jacob Redman was taxed in 1798 for a barn and 148 acres of land. In 1806 Jacob received 149 acres in Pinegrove Twp. from his father-in-law.

In 1807, Jacob and family, preparing for their journey to Ohio, gave power of attorney to a local man to collect debts owed to Jacob.

Jacob and family arrived in Columbiana Co. Ohio and settled in section 1, West Twp. He appears on the 1809 and 1810 tax lists for Columbiana Co. A subscription list dated 1839 for money to help build the second Lutheran Church in North Georgetown, originally St. Michaels, lists Jacob and sons William and John Redman.

Daughter Catharine Redman married Andrew Barnes. She died in 1886 and is buried in this cemetery.

Son Samuel Redman married Ellen Hoffman and lived in North Georgetown. He was a shoemaker. He later moved to Indiana.

Daughter Mary Redman married Henry Barnes. They lived here in West Twp. and are buried in this cemetery along with their descendants. Their children were Joseph, William, John, Catharine, Lavina (mar. Carey Zepernick), and Eli Barnes.

Dear Sandy,

You are really to be congratulated on locating evidence that Ludwig Kemmerling served in the American Revolution! I also have no question that this is our ancestor. I suspect that Jacob Kemmerling was his brother.

In the Schlaitdorf, Germany church records, in addition to Hans Ludwig Kummerlin who was born 6 May 1747, there was also a Matthias Jakob Kummerlin who was born 22 Sep 1741, both who were sons of Hans Martin Kummerlin, so we could still have the same family.

I believe our search should also include that of Jacob Kemmerling. If we could find records over here of his date of birth that would coincide with that of the Schlaitdorf church records, this would give strong circumstantial evidence that we have the right family.

A Jacob Kimberling obtained a land warrant in Pine Grove 11 Nov 1774, and a Jacob Kimmerling obtained a land warrant in Brunswick, 3 April 1787.

Our local library here has an incomplete collection of the DAR lineage books. I have checked over about a third of them so far and have not yet found anyone who has claimed a Kemmerling ancestor in joining the DAR.

I have made some real progress in searching Kemmerlings and Wagners in Schuylkill County, PA, with the help of a local family history researcher. I have many church, birth, marriage, death, and cemetery records mostly around Pine Grove. It is going to take me weeks to try to put all these families together. Most of these are descendants of Ludwig and Christina Kemmerling. I am enclosing a copy of my updated ancestor chart and some family group sheets.

I don't know if I told you or not in a previous letter, but I made contact with a Donna J. G. Hafer, 182 Deacon Drive, Norristown, Pennsylvania 19403, who is also a descendant of Heinrich Kemmerling in Schuylkill County, through his daughter Rosina Kemmerling who married Johannes Wagner. She also supplied me with a great deal of information on our mutual families that I didn't have.

I need to check further to find out where Revolutionary War records might be located. I suspect they are housed in the National Archives. It seems like I read recently that some Revolutionary War records are being released to the public soon.

Again I want to congratulate you in your perserverance that located the record of Ludwig Kemmerling serving in the Revolution.

Sincerely yours,

Ronald M. Moore, M.D.

Note: Most Germans (both male and female) usually go by their middle names. Therefore, Hans Martin, Hans Kaspar, and Hans Ludwig were probably known as just Martin, Kaspar, and Ludwig Kümmerlin. Also, Hans is just a short form for Johann.

X (Hans) Michael was probably the one who put an ad in a newspaper asking the whereabouts of his brother Hans (Johannes) in 1769. This family also came from Schlaitdorf (which was written as "Schleydorf" in that newspaper ad). They came over on the ship "Nancy" in 1751 with the other Kümmerlin family. I think some of them settled in York Co., PA (I'm still working on that!)

This is an area south of Stuttgart Germany, where many of the Kemmerles, etc., came from. I'm researching the circled area where the name goes back in some of the villages to the mid 1500's. Thereafter, the name spreads out all over the place, even to Penna in 1750!

This area was the kingdom of Württemberg, but it is now the West-German state of Baden-Württemberg.

PART II

ADAM KIMBERLING

- Book -
"Kimberling Kin"

1983

By Joyce Kuchnle found in Salt Lake City, Utah

Adam Kimberling was possibly born about 1750. It is very possible that both of his parents were born in Germany and he could have been born there also. Adam probably lived the greater portion of his life in Augusta County and Botetourt (Bot-tee-tot) County, Virginia. Around 1770 he married Nancy Davis, daughter of Patrick Davis. The German language was spoken in the home and English, undoubtedly, was the second language. The only record regarding the Revolution is that Adam was in Captain John Ballar's District on the Jackson River south of the Botetourt Line. About 1793 Adam and his son, Jacob, purchased some land on the Cedar Creek, a tributary of the Jackson River and about 20 miles upstream from Covington, VA. This is situated in present Bath Co., VA. In 1803 Adam and Nancy and their married and unmarried children moved to Mason Co., VA. Since there was an established post road from Richmond, VA. to Point Pleasant, W. VA. it may be assumed that this is the way they traveled by wagon to Charleston, for the post road ran through Covington. ~~Adam~~ tells us that they floated on the river on a flatboat, landing at Grimes Landing, where they made a sled from the flatboat. They pulled the sled over two hills and settled on Thirteen Mile Creek. Adam died before March, 1805, for an inventory of his property is in the Mason County Will Book. Nancy died after 1810, for she is listed on the 1810 Mason County Census. Possible children:

James Kimberling

James Kimberling, son of Adam Kimberling and Nancy Davis, was born in 1773. At this time that is all the information I have on him.

Mary Magdalene Kimberling

Mary Magdalene Kimberling, daughter of Adam Kimberling and Nancy Davis, was born December 13, 1775. In 1794 she married John Mackly in Bath Co., VA. They moved to Mason County probably in 1803 with the rest of the family. After 1830 they moved to Jackson Co., Ohio where they died. Their son, Davis Mackly, remained in Jackson Co., Ohio, where he was Prosecuting Attorney for the County & Editor of the Jackson Standard. A daughter of Mary and John married a Mr. Smith and they moved to Kearney, Nebraska, where they celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary. Some of the descendants of Mary and John Mackly are in Ohio and in Greater Kansas City.

* (We think that Adam was buried in the Kimberling cemetery. There is a stone for Nancy Davis Kimberling there.)

I looked for your Henry & Lebewick - no mention of them in her books

This is a study of what is presently known about the first known Bonawitz in America, the progenitor of most of the Bonawitz, Bonewitz, Bonawit, etc., families in America today. A great amount of information was collected by Gail Jones, now Mrs. E. Breitbard of Miami, in the years since 1960. Gail, a Bonawitz descendant, obtained information from our relatives in many states. She has given this material to me. I have studied the family somewhat independently for several years. Mr. C. E. Koppenheffer of Emporium, Pennsylvania has made very considerable contributions to both of us.

ADAM is the first Bonawitz known to have been our ancestor. He was on a list of taxpayers in Heidelberg Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania in 1754. Berks County was erected from Lancaster County in 1752. ADAM purchased land at present day Robesonia in 1760 and died in May 1761. Orphan's Court records at Reading establish the family composition. A Jacob Bonawitz or Bonewitz wrote a will "over Blue Mountains" in Berks County in 1770 and died there in 1771.

ADAM's will was formal in nature and was signed with a "b". This does not establish that ADAM could not write. He may have been quite ill, since he died about two weeks later. Jacob wrote his own will in German and signed it, naming only his wife Anna Maria and a married daughter Christina. He referred to himself as "the old man" and left some land. Witnesses were Adam Mohr and Peter Schmid.

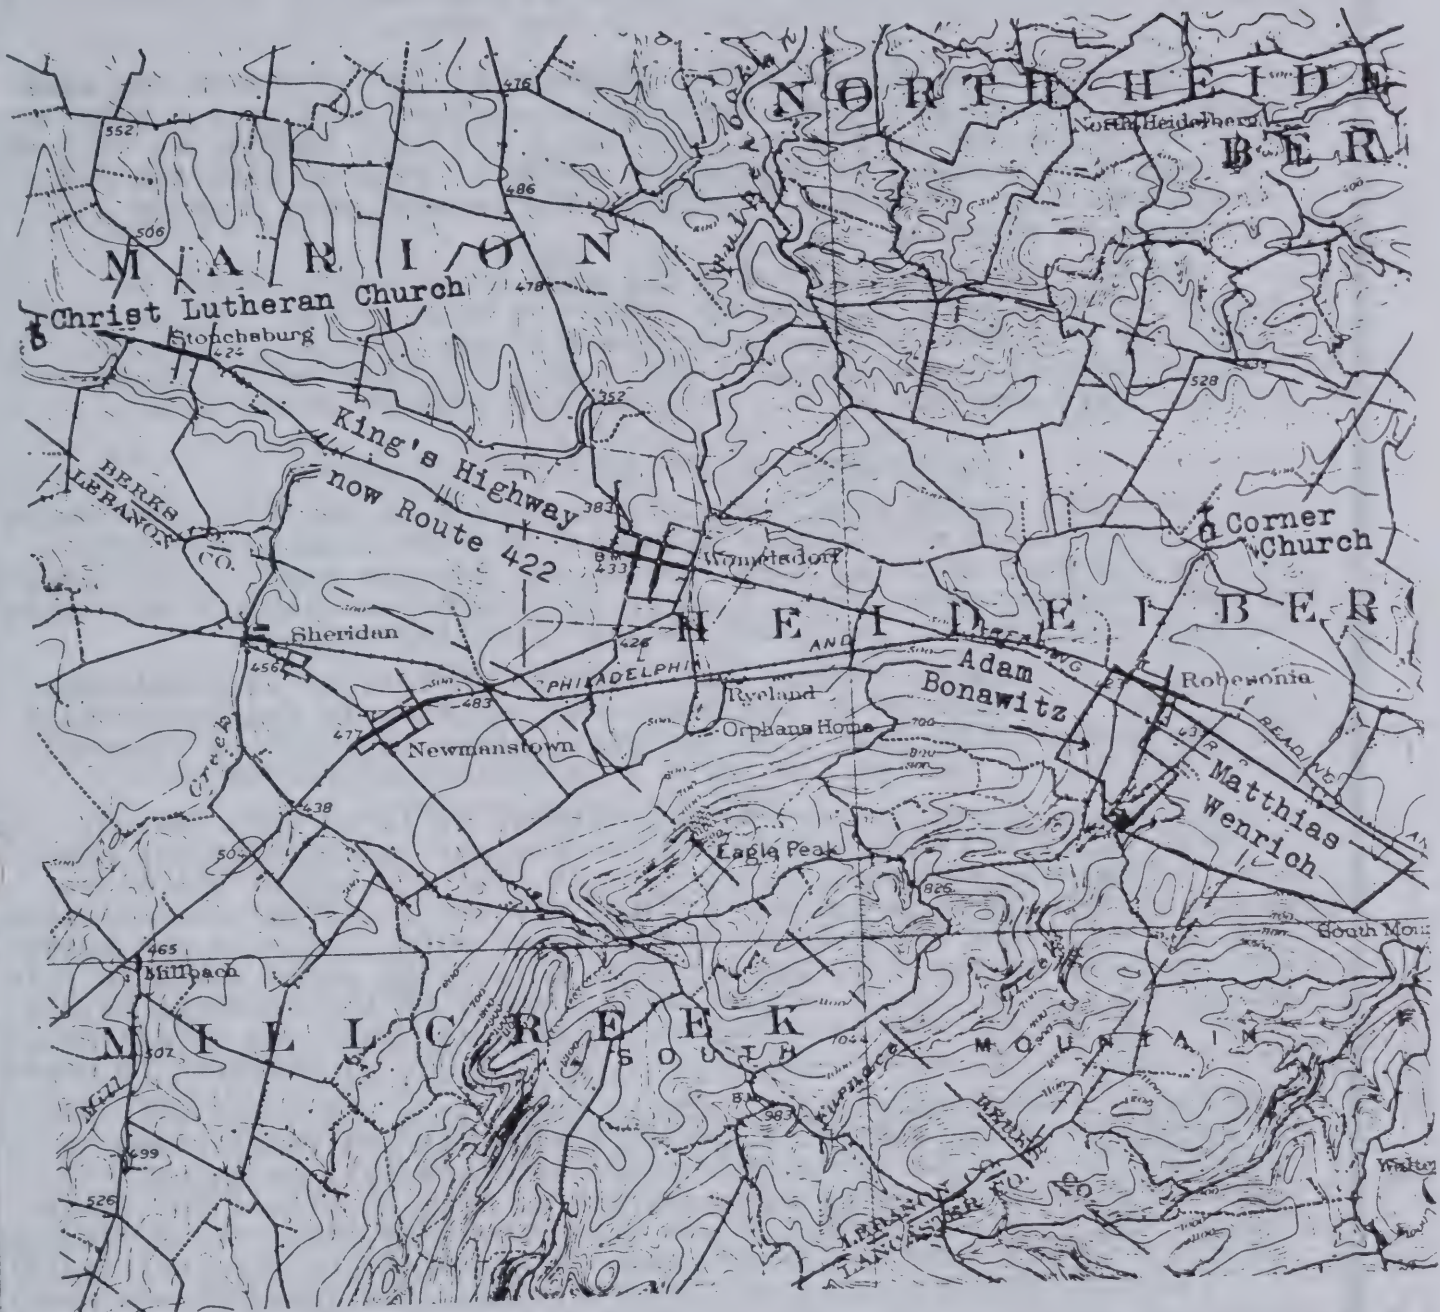

German males over age 15 who entered the country at Philadelphia at that time were considered aliens and were required to sign a promise of allegiance to the King of Great Britain. The signature of a passenger who arrived September 13, 1749 on the ship Christian remarkably matches the signature on Jacob's will. ADAM's entry will open to speculation.

ADAM mentioned his oldest son in his will, naming him as Johann George. The name Johann was commonly given to male children by the German immigrants of that time, sometimes as a first name of two or three sons. Something to do with saints. The Orphan's Court records listed all of ADAM's children when probate action occurred in May of 1765. Listed were "John George now of 13 or thereabouts, James age 7 thereabouts, Jacob age 4 thereabouts and Catherine age 3 thereabouts." ADAM's wife Juliana was married to George Heberling. George Heberling was on tax lists there in 1765 and 1766. Juliana reverted to the name Bonawitz and sponsored the baptism of her daughter's daughter in May 1775 at St. Daniel's (Corner) Church near Robesonia. For our purpose, the second generation consists of JOHN GEORGE born 1752, CATHERINE born 1756, JOHANN born 1758, and JACOB born 1761. CATHERINE has been traced only to 1785.

The small town of Bonnewitz has existed near Pirna, a suburb of Dresden, since 1378, though the spelling has varied at times. No proof has been established that our ancestors lived there. The name is found in records of the Rectory of Coburg as early as 1754 and a David Bonnewitz was born at Coburg and married at New York in 1854. Several others immigrated at about that time.

The signatures below are from the ship list and Jacob's will.

Handwritten signatures: "J. B. Bonawitz" and "J. B. Bonawitz" (mirrored).

The Bonawitz and Wenrich tracts are shown here on an old topographic map. Furnace Creek flows through both to Big Spring where it becomes Spring Creek. Adam's son Jacob sold the last of the Bonawitz tract to George Ege in 1795. Ege built the Reading Furnace on the lower end of the Bonawitz tract in 1794 and used Furnace Creek to generate the needed water power. Trees from the surrounding hills were cut and made into charcoal. In 1830 228 men and 198 horses were employed in the operation, making 3568 tons of pig metal and 95 tons of castings. The Robesonia Iron Company was incorporated in 1885 and operated there. Today it is mostly farm land. It appears that Furnace Creek was once known as Spring Creek.

The religious background is Protestant. Variations of the name appear in Germany and other European countries. ADAM used a ring to seal the signature on his will but Jacob did not. ADAM's tax bill in 1759 was five pounds. He bought 186 acres of land in 1760 for 186 pounds sterling. He left a "considerable estate" with a value exceeding 82 pounds.

On May 2nd 1761 ADAM wrote his will which was probated on May 22 of that year. His oldest child was nine at the time so ADAM must have died when middle aged. The will was written in German. English translators misspelled the name and it has been spelled various ways ever since. The original spelling is shown here.

In the Name of the Holy Trinity Amen

Whereas I Johann Adam Bonnowitz according to the wise providence of God am visited with bodily weakness, and not knowing when the loving God will call me, thro' Death, out of this world into Eternity, I have thought proper while I am in good understanding and memory to make my Last Will or Testament in the following manner.

Firstly I recommend, through the Blood of Christ, my Dear Redeemed Soul into the hands of my Redeemer; but the Body to the Earth which is the Mother of us all, that the same, after the Soul is departed from it, may be laid in the Earth in a Christian like manner.

Secondly As concerning my Worldly Estate, it is my Will that my beloved Wife shall take beforehand for her use and benefit one mare and one cow called Hamel, and one three year old heifer and three swine which will be necessary for her and the children's subsistence; but the remaining Personal Estate shall be sold, and with the money arising from the sale of the Personal Estate the debts shall be paid which yet remain unpaid, and of what remains of the Personal Estate after the debts are paid my beloved wife shall have one third part, and the other two thirds part shall be divided among my children in shares.

Thirdly Of my place situate here in Heidelberg whereon I now live it is my Will that my wife with the children live and remain, and to maintain herself and the children on the Place till my eldest Son arrive at the full age of eighteen years, then my eldest Son Johann George shall enter upon the Place and manage the same till my youngest child is of age then the Place shall be appraised by discreet-indifferent persons, and according to the appraisalment the youngest son shall have and shall pay to each of the other children their shares; but if the youngest son will not have it, afterwards one of the other children may have the Place as the youngest child might have held it.

Fourthly I reserve that this my Last Will or Testament shall not be of force till after my death- that it shall be kept as above written after my death. I have to the confirmation thereof subscribed it with my own hand- Sealed and Signed in the Year of Christ one thousand seven hundred and sixty one. The 2nd Day of May and in the first Year of the reign of Lord George the Third.

Our story begins in the middle of the 18th century. But we speculate and go back another 1100 years into early European history. In the 7th century, a strong Slavic tribe from the East, known as the Wends, drove into that part of Germany which lay between the Elbe and Oder rivers. Tribal wars lasted for centuries. The situation stabilized somewhat by the 12th and 13th centuries when remnants of the Wends were largely absorbed by German tribes. We find on the map today several towns near Dresden with "itz" endings. We have information of a small town near Pirna named Bonnewitz. Its history began in 1378. It was laid out in Wendish fashion and had but few families.

The Rectory at Coburg has a few Pannewitz or Bonnewitz records dated 1754-1817. Mention is made in Part 4 of this book of a David Bonnewitz who was born at Coburg and who married at New York in 1854. Also a Henry Bonnewitz who was born at Hamburg in 1824 and came to New York. It appears that our family was few in numbers and was scattered, in Germany as in America.

As will be seen in this book, nearly all Bonawitz and Bonewitz families in America descended from Adam and Juliana Bonnewitz of Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Others, not so related, are listed in Part 4 of this book. It is likely that Adam came over in 1749. Some arrival records have been lost. It is not known if he was married when he arrived. He contributed to the St. Daniel's Church in the 1753-1754 period and was a taxpayer in 1754.

William Penn, as owner of Pennsylvania, had encouraged immigrants from Germany for he knew them to be honest and industrious. There was much religious dissention in the German States, as some rulers were Catholic and some were Protestant. Warfare was frequent and sometimes the land was laid bare. Sometimes there was famine. Pennsylvania was a land of promise to many Germans and some 50,000 of them left their homes for America in the 18th century.

The crossing was not easy. Sailing vessels made one round trip a year. After picking up passengers along the Rhine, the vessels stopped at Rotterdam, Holland or Cowes, England to get provisions for the trip. To get favorable winds, the voyages usually began in summer, and lasted 10 to 12 weeks. Disease sometimes broke out on a vessel. Due to disease and hazards of the sea, perhaps 40% of the 50,000 people who left Europe never saw America. Some came without money and were bound out to Philadelphians for stated lengths of time in order to pay off the sailing masters.

From Orphan's Court records at Reading, Pennsylvania.
Book 1, page 221. May 16, 1765.

Upon the Petition of George Haberling and Juliana his wife, late Juliana Bonewitz, widow of Adam Bonewitz late of the Township of Heidelberg in this County Yeoman deceased, setting forth, "That the said Adam Bonewitz dyed about four Years since leaving a considerable Estate in the said County and Issue four Children, to-wit, John George, now of the Age of thirteen Years or thereabouts, -- Johann, now of the Age of seven Years, thereabouts, -- Jacob, now of the Age of four Years or thereabouts, & Catharine, now of the Age of nine Years or thereabouts, for whom by his Testament and Last Will he has appointed no Guardians or Guardian -- And therefore praying the Court to appoint Guardians over the Persons & Estates of the said Minor Children." The Court here do -- appoint Frederick Weiser and John George Lauch Guardians of the Persons & Estates of the Minor Children aforesaid.

In Volume 16, page 503 is a copy of an indenture dated April 11, 1795 whereby Jacob Bonewitz and Eve his wife sold 92 acres and 131 perches of land to George Ege Esquire. "(It being part of 186 acres and 88 perches of land and allowance as aforesaid which George Bonewitz and Elizabeth his wife, John Bonewitz and Ludwig Ebricht and Catharine his wife by their Indenture of Release bearing date the twenty fourth day of April Anno Domini 1783 did release and confirm unto the said Jacob Bonewitz - - - - -)"

DANIEL REDMAN.

For more than fifty-one years this gentleman has been a resident of Whitley county. In politics, as a member of the church and in his social relations he has endeavored as best he could to influence his fellowmen along right lines and to benefit himself by benefiting others. Meantime as a farmer and merchant he has conducted business according to the golden rule with the result that he has achieved a fair measure of financial success, while gaining the esteem of neighbors and patrons. Daniel Redman is a native of Jefferson township, where he was born August 29, 1855. His parents were Henry J. and Catherine (Huffer) Redman, the former a native of Columbiana county, Ohio, and the latter of Maryland. Early in the 'fifties they bought land in Jefferson township, where he died about 1870, but his widow survives and is living on the old homestead at the age of eighty-seven years. They had eight children, of whom Daniel was the fifth. He grew up on the parental farm of one hundred and five acres, which he now owns, and there he has spent all his life except three years, during which he has been a resident of Laud. His principal occupation was farming until 1892, when he established a store at Laud as dealer in harness and buggies, which he conducted in connection with his farm. He enjoys a good trade in this line and derives a substantial revenue from the old homestead farm of which he is now the sole owner. For many years Mr. Redman acted with the Republican party, but becoming dissatisfied with its attitude towards the liquor traffic he allied himself with the Prohibitionists, of whose cause he is now a staunch advocate.

July 10, 1879, Mr. Redman was married to Amelia E., daughter of Alexander and Savilla Ummel, formerly of Washington township, where the mother died, the father surviving at an advanced age. Mr. and Mrs. Redman have had seven children of whom the survivors are Sherman A., Simon R., May N., Nellie M. and Ralph W. Elsie E., wife of Winfield O. Smith, died in Washington township, and Elma E. died when about six months old. Mr. and Mrs. Redman are active members of the United Brethren church in which he has held various official positions, being superintendent of the Sunday-school for many years. He is also a member of the Odd Fellows and Knights of the Maccabees.
